FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Thursday, July 16, 2020

Twenty-Two people die of COVID-19 complications; 1,248 more test positive

EDINBURG – Twenty-two residents have died today due to complications related to COVID-19, while 1,248 learned they have tested positive for the virus, Hidalgo County Judge Richard F. Cortez said Thursday. This brings the total number of positive cases to 10,492.

"I am deeply saddened by the loss of 22 people from our community. My prayers and condolences go out to the families and friends of these individuals," said Cortez. "To those currently battling this disease and who are at home, I urge you to remain quarantined so that you may not infect a loved one or anyone in our community."

The sharp increase in positive cases is due to the release of test results from the federal testing at Bert Ogden Arena. Health officials say that over the next several days a large number of positive results are expected to come from that testing site.

There are currently 968 people hospitalized with complications from the disease with 249 of those in intensive care units. A total of 236 people were released from isolation today meaning that they have been symptom-free for 10 days, including three days without a fever. There are 5,861 net active cases.
