Three people die due to COVID-19 complications; 270 people test positive

EDINBURG – As Hidalgo County passed the 4,000 mark in positive cases, three residents died due to complications related to COVID-19, Hidalgo County Judge Richard F. Cortez said Wednesday. This comes as 270 people learned they tested positive for the virus bringing the total number of positive cases to 4,252.

The deaths involved a Male in his 40s from McAllen; a Male in his 50s from San Juan; and a Male in his 70s from Mission. They all had underlying medical conditions.

"This virus does not discriminate. Anyone at any age can be susceptible to this disease," said Judge Cortez. "We have to continue to do what our medical experts tell us: wear facial coverings, avoid mass gatherings, and stay home. Following these guidelines will help us slow the spread."

There are 301 people hospitalized with complications from the virus; 27 of those cases are being treated in intensive care units. There are currently 3,026 net active cases and 3,427 test results are pending. Twenty-seven people were released from isolation on Wednesday meaning that they have been symptom-free for 10 days, including three days without a fever.
