Fifteen more die and 335 test positive for COVID-19 in Hidalgo County

EDINBURG – The death toll continues to rise as 15 more people died after testing positive for COVID-19 bringing the total number of Hidalgo County residents who have died from complications of the virus to 90. An additional 335 others found out that they have tested positive for the virus. This brings the overall number of known positive cases to 5,782.

“We have reached a critical juncture in the battle against this disease,” Judge Cortez said. “Our healthcare system is admirably battling to save lives as the number of serious cases needing hospitalization is presenting new challenges. Please join me in praying for not only our courageous health care workers, but for those family and friends of people who have died.”

Those who have died included:
