City of McAllen Approves Temporary Emergency Shelter to Move Location

McAllen City Commission decision seeks to protect public health and safety

As part of its ongoing efforts to protect the public health and safety in McAllen, and in accordance with the Mayor's Declaration of Local Disaster issued on August 2, 2021, emergency temporary shelters for COVID positive immigrants are to be moved from the temporary location on 23rd Street in McAllen to Hidalgo County property near CBP operations.

The City of McAllen is grateful to Hidalgo County Judge Richard Cortez and County Commissioner Precinct 3 Everardo "Ever" Villarreal for their efforts in support of this action.
