Re: Officer Larry Tineo-Oliver
Withdrawal Temporary Suspension Without Pay

Dear Ms. Pedraza:

On January 22, 2020, Officer Larry Tineo-Oliver, hereinafter referred to as Officer Tineo-Oliver, was officially charged with the commission of Official Oppression, a Class A misdemeanor complaint, Terroristic Threat, a Class B misdemeanor complaint, False Report to a Peace Officer, a Class B misdemeanor complaint, and Tampering with or Fabricating Physical Evidence a 3rd Degree Felony complaint.

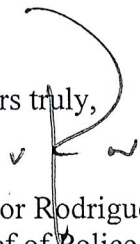

Following such and pursuant to Chapter 143, Municipal Civil Service Regulations, Section 143.056, Texas Local Government Code, Officer Tineo-Oliver was placed under temporary suspension without pay effective at 8:00 AM, January 22, 2020.

On this date, I was informed by Hidalgo County Assistant District Attorney Michael Garza that an Hidalgo County Grand Jury No Billed Officer Tineo-Oliver on all above referenced charges.

Therefore, I herein withdraw my Temporary Suspension Without Pay order dated January 22, 2020.

Respectfully, I remain.

Yours truly,
