

If you belong to Sharyland Water Supply, you are urged to use water sparingly.

We have lost power due to Hurricane Hanna at all of our facilities. We have limited capability to pump water in the distribution system. Please, please use water sparingly until further notice. The business office is temporarily closed due to water damage.

#